

"It's one thing to promise, another to perform."

computer solutions

BI Analyst (m/f)

Role

As a BI Analyst you will be involved in:

- Translating user requirements into technical requirements:
  - Define/understand and document business processes
  - Derive and document business entities and measures from business processes.
- Translating user requirements into solutions (design) using existing BI-tools (develop).
- Defining/organizing and preparing end-user training.
- Supporting organizations in order to designing and develop solutions.

"It's one thing to promise, another to perform."

computer solutions

Profile

- As an entrepreneurial personality, you are result and customer focussed and you thrive in a dynamic environment with lots of personal responsibilities and limited formalities. You are a team player, flexible, creative, and eager to learn.
- Expertise to map operational data models towards a data warehouse model.
- Preferably you have a University Degree or equivalent by experience.
- Proven experience in implementing BI solutions.
- You have experience with requirements definition and translating these into end-user solutions.
- You have experience with one or more Business Intelligence solutions such as IBM (Cognos, Datastage), Informatica , Open-Source (Pentaho, etc.), Oracle (Siebel Analytics, Hyperion, Oracle BI), SAP (SAP BW, Business Objects), SAS, SPSS, ...
- You have excellent communication skills and fluent in English and either Dutch or French.