

"It's one thing to promise, another to perform."

computer solutions

Senior BI Architect (m/f)

Role

As a BI Architect you will be involved in:

- User requirements gathering.
- Translating these requirements in a solid design.
- Modelling & implementation into a BI solution.
- Designing and implementing technical and operational architectures
- Data modelling and data architecture design / implementation
- ETL, data integration, data quality and data conversion design / implementation

You have proven expertise in:

- One or more ETL tools.
- One or more modelling tools/methodologies.
- Data model performance optimization.
- BI concepts and methodologies

"It's one thing to promise, another to perform."

computer solutions

Profile

- As an entrepreneurial personality, you are result and customer focussed and you thrive in a dynamic environment with lots of personal responsibilities and limited formalities. You are a team player, flexible, creative, and eager to learn.
- Preferably you have a University Degree or equivalent by experience.
- Proven (5 - 10 years) experience in designing, developing and implementing BI solutions.
- You have experience with requirements definition, technical design and development.
- You have experience with one or more Business Intelligence solutions such as IBM (Cognos, Datastage), Informatica , Open-Source (Pentaho, etc.), Oracle (Siebel Analytics, Hyperion, Oracle BI), SAP (SAP BW, Business Objects), SAS, SPSS, ...
- You have proven performance tuning experience on one or more databases.
- You have the ability to implement future proof architectures within large organizations. You are fluent in English and either Dutch or French.